

XM radio should not have its content be snuffed by the FCC that is protecting the big players via legislation. Capitlism demands that the large radio nets build thier own sat network to compete.
Does government need to do everything for the populace.

Please stay out of it.

Thanks Jon Wells